Coming from the city of the we're exploring topics from the esoteric and unexplored, two dimensions are known. Shining a light of truth on the darkest corners of our reality. Welcome to the curious realm

00:51

Well, hello, everybody how you doing this evening Chris Jordan here coming at you live from Austin, Texas tonight. Happy Holidays everybody we are but a few days away number one. Tomorrow is Solstice. Winter Solstice is tomorrow. I attempted contacting Mr. Stone to come on and talk about America's Stonehenge, trying to get him on next week. I was kind of glad that it didn't go through though, because there has been a kerfuffle amongst the UFO UAP truther community here in the last week, I really just in the last week in the last year or so. There has been a lot up in the air about Corey Goode. Corey Goode is of course, most famously known for his work on the cosmic secret ascension Chronicles sphere of influence above majestic. Other works and he was really one of the first people to come forward really the first person to come forward and say that he was a part of a secret space program to say that he had been through testing as a child to make sure that he was ready for this. And I spent 20 years off world was age regressed, brought back had experiences with blue avian aliens, called the N char. And it began a whole community of people and began a whole movement within the community about such things like a secret space program existing. And of course we have, we have a space program, we know that we now have the Space Core, the Space Force, as it's called. We've had things like that for years and years. And of course, there there was the hack that happened many years ago, talking about the offworld officers, things like that. But Corey Goode really took this thing to another level. He and his associate well no longer associate, David Wilcox, both of them produced this amazing show for Gaia. Corey left it continued being produced. And Cory has since by I don't I don't think by any choice of his own, but he has definitely come out and had to give a deposition in his lawsuit. So we will be getting into the lawsuit. The lawsuits that are pending the deposition, which is is the big kerfuffle in the community right now where he openly admits that all of this is intellectual property. All of this is stories that he has made up. We will be getting into that and so much more with investigative reporter Mike Thurber. He he provided us some amazing stuff and connected us with Steven cambian. I want to thank you, Steven cambian from truth seekers out there. That is where we will be playing all of our footage tonight. From Corey Goode. They they are the people that officially released all unredacted versions. They're chopped up versions. There's bits and pieces versions, things like that that have been out there. But truth seekers out there on YouTube, Steven cambian show put out the entire site Ex parte deposition, we'll be talking mainly about session three today, which is, which is where they get into his offworld experience. The fact that this is all part of his meditation process and intellectual property. Mike turbo will be joining us for that. Thank you so much for building that bridge, my friend. Welcome back to the show, how are you doing?

 05:25

I'm doing splendiferous going, doing quite well. Kind of getting ready to get the move on and get back to the other coast. And I'll be seeing you along the way. Because I'll be passing right by tech. Yeah, can't wait. And then we're both going to be in Vegas. So you know, you never know what happens then.

 05:40

 05:50

The Vegas hopefully will, buddy.

 05:53

Now. Earlier before the show started, I was talking about a video I'm playing this video right now off of off of our Facebook page. And this is a video that I took. And I posted this today with with full disclosure about how it was made. This is actually a close up video of the planet Mars out of focus, and you can see the camera trying to focus and things like that it looks otherworldly. But the whole reason that I posted that was literally as an exercise to be like, Hey, folks, you know, we need to remember that we have a due diligence. Even if we are true believers, I am a true believer, Mike, I truly believe that there is life out there that there is something else. And that does not mean that I'm not willing to admit that something like the video that I posted is simply what it is. And the claims of Corey Goode were large, they were big. They were they weren't Bob Lazar size, which is still huge, in big. So much so that hey, you might think Bob Lazar is crazy, folks, but Lazar him exists. Now. The element that he said it exists actively exists in the periodic table, right where he said it would. So that's a different story. But the claims of Corey Goode were huge, the fact that he actively states that these things are real. That is the it's how he put them out there. Yeah.

 07:52

And here's the here's the here's a quick comparison, because you brought up Bob Lazar. And I'm glad you did, because this is this is a perfect time to interject the thoughts. You have on one hand, a man who is taking, what he is saying is his experiences. And is, is greatly attempting to profit from those. And then you have Bob Lazar, the exact opposite, who has really just kind of set a thing to the feet and has not really, you know, pushed his story, if bizarre went out and put the story out to make a living at it or something, then then he would probably do quite well. Because his story is kind of kind of interesting, too, not as fancy, and when I say are fantastical, or that word without saying remember which one was written with with with, but but didn't, it's too like polar opposite, but at the base of it. Both of their stories are very fanciful, and non verifiable, and things of that nature. But one is really trying to profit off the other ones trying to profit off of their own stories that were the other ones really not. And then at the same time, this individual is suing these the people that essentially could have been his staunchest supporter, obviously through a third degree. But But listening to his deposition, I am glad to have seen, you know all of it now. So there's no speculation 40 It says, Yeah, and it does. It's very helpful to hear him say something because something he said makes a lot of sense as to why he did things the way they did it. But they all make sense. Now, when he alludes to the fact that basically everything was a work of fiction. Yeah. And the first clue everyone should have had, that this was a work of fiction. Is it Only trademark something. Yep. If you go out and you trademark something, or copyright something or whatever, that has to belong to you, you have to be able to prove that there's a trademark office that that's you. So if he goes out and tries to trademark the term 20 and back, he tried to trademark the term blue avian and trademark the terms Secret Space Program.

 10:26

Oh, hey, no, no try. Yeah. Well, he did. Like yeah, we'll be showing the footage in a little while where the lawyer literally refer in the deposition refers to Blue avian, and he says trademark.

 10:43

Yeah, like and he trademark trademark something. Be like, yeah, I trademark

 10:52

I trademark Cobras.

 10:54

Yeah. Like I trademark humankind. Yeah. He can't do that. You can trademark your name as it relates to a product you produce like you went in to make an Apache helicopter and you want to? Yeah, prime example.

 11:09

Yeah. I mean, I hate saying it, folks. But the man's name is trademarked. He has he has the Trump board game from the 1980s. Like, that's what he does is he sells his name and access to it. That's, that's what he does. You know, so here we have here we have someone that, you know, Bill's lawyer would have awards, or someone that's well versed in, in the Patent Trademark area, was looking at this and go, Wait a second. He's trademarking something that is to him and what he's trying to sell as real. And he's basically bragging that it's his IP. And then it's his trademark. Yet these entities are supposedly real way. Yeah. And that's when you should step back and get a little bit and go, Okay, you can't, you can't do that. But you did. And that would have immediately, you know, I kind of look past that a little bit, but at the same time, you go, okay, yeah.

11:28

12:20

Yeah, no, and that's part of it. And he blatantly says that. Let's, let's go ahead. Real quick. And give me give me one second here. Sir, because I am I am hiding a dirty secret in the background right now as I as I fix something. So that's, that's how honest I am. You know that there's a dirty secret going on in the background, folks. Let's go ahead and get started. This is 10 minutes into session three of his deposition, which happened September 26. So this is this is not necessarily a hot off the press just happened situation, but a hot off the press just became public knowledge situations. So here is the words, the words of Corey Goode himself.

13:18

Some of that from fighting in wars with the aliens, is that right?

13:21

No, it's from a traumatic childhood.

13:29

You didn't claim that in your lectures, there was some of that was from fighting with aliens, never. With PTSD, I never publicly described why I had it. But two people that I worked with, I had told them what the PTSD was from.

13:34

13:53

Day you claim that you were speaking with an Shar at some point in time, 13:58

yeah, that's when I meditate. Those were my guides.

 14:01

Okay. And who, and that's a future species living inside the ear. Yes. And you communicate with him on a regular basis?

 14:08

Yeah. And it's also a part of my IP, and creative arts that we're making movies and video games out of.

 14:17

So you're saying that no one else can communicate with them, but you?

 14:20

Well, yeah. Well, well, they're my Spirit Guides. They're they came from me.

 14:27

And so you're saying and char is, is unique to you? No one else can communicate to them, but through you. Let's see. And sharks answer my question.

 14:38

It's in my franchise, Bible, my creations. Creator.

 14:43

The franchise Bible is one of my favorite ones there. And, you know, that that's just the beginning folks of him saying that and char the people that he he claims lived in the Middle of the Earth, things like that. And believe me, we have mediums on the show. All right, full believer. Not a problem. However, what those mediums don't do is sell their experience in the way that Corey does. Yeah. Wrapped in the fact of this is what I did. And he claims, fan fiction.

 15:36

You've got to give it to that attorney, though, because think about this for a moment. As that attorney was asking him the question, he handled that with kid gloves, big time, because he did not immediately start going, Wait a second, you made all this up, you know, he knew where he was going to go. But he did it in such a well mannered, very tactical, strategic way of doing it. And that he allowed Cory to say, what Cory said, without him prompting, saying something to the effect of now, you know, you are the only person who would get talking with the blue avians. Correct her and blah, blah, blah, yeah. Okay. So obviously, then, then, then they don't exist. He can't get a went immediately off the deep end that way. And he didn't. And he did it. Amazingly. Well, I have to admit that that attorney did a very good job in that.

16:33

Yeah. Yeah, most definitely. And here, here's this section here. Let me let me get to it. There we go.

16:44

Part of this intellectual property.

16:46

And it's a content that's created by you. Yes.

16:50

Okay. And all of the delusional people in the community who take this information, it's it is what you call fan fiction. Okay. So people that are talking about the and char and all of these different Secret Space Program things, it's fan fiction, based on my real life experience that I dramatized.

17:10

This creates, people are delusional, if they believe it.

17:13

They're delusional if they believe they were in the secret space program and in contact with the Anshar, who are my creation?

17:23

Do you believe you're a part of the secret space program?

17:26

I was part of a secret program? I was 17:29

and whose secret was it? What do you mean? You said it's a secret space program whose secret

17:35

it was a government secret, I guess which government, United States government.

17:40

And so you say that you're part of the secret space program.

17:43

I was a part of. I was brought into my lab programs when I was an elementary school brought to Carswell Air Force, Air Force Base, where we went through all sorts of experiments and training with Air Force Base cars, well, it's now joint and some they changed it. So Fort Worth and to because of that, you're part of a secret space program.

18:12

18:15

No, I was brought into a program a secret space program based on that training, and after that, I did this and so the secret space program was introduced to you in your elementary school, right.

18:28

18:35

When I was 17, I thought you said Elementary School. Now that was the training, the my lab training where they took us out of school and did training in experiments. Now, let me say they took you out and 18:52

18:50

the the part that I get a little antsy about there is where he calls people delusional. Yeah, once again, I am a tried true believer, I believe in life on other planets. I believe I believe in contacting other other realms and dimensions of intelligence even however, to call people delusional, especially within the community now, once again, the video that I made and posted I posted because I think that even we believers, we should have a much greater burden of proof we tend to get very wrapped up. We there are numerous people within the community who, whenever given a video of an anomaly will immediately jump to the extreme without just saying, okay, honest UFO flying Got object that has an identified period doesn't have to, you know, they'll accept it at face value. And as long as it comes from someone in the community that they can welcome into the fold either as new or someone that has been in the community and brings new evidence. You know, like a classic case in point would be third base, you know, secret team or your team rather than some other ones that have been around for a while, they'll bring in something and there's a core group, you know, in that community that will just accept it. And then if someone comes in and says the opposite, you know, that, that is just instantly wrong. But it's understandable because it's, it's, it's borderline. I don't want to I don't wanna throw religion into this mix, but it's borderline a belief system. And that once you're entrenched in it, it's extremely difficult to see outside of it. And then on top of that, you feel an inherent belief, or, like an obligation to defend it at all costs. And one of the ways to defend it is to accept, yeah, more into it.

20:05

21:15

Well, well, yeah. And I mean, it does. The the word fan, even when he uses fan fiction, the word fan has its roots in fanaticism.

21:28

And his case, I would have said, bolt action, maybe? Sure. Sure. I mean, I'll take the stress. You don't have to do it, because it first go but I'll take the stress and go into some aspects of various parts of this community and other communities or whatever, and have a deeper level to them to where it becomes almost a cultist kind of thing. Yeah, almost there's, I've never I would never call the UFO community, a cult, no community, because it's just simply not. But there's aspects of it that, that you start to sense. It's like the Lou Elizondo thing, he could never do any wrong. And, you know, it got to be that way. Before 2017. This was it. You know, you had David Wilcock, and you had, you know, Corey Goode and a few others, you know, some other facets here and there, that were entrenched in this. And their movement in this community was was far more than what happened after 2017. Two for many people, because it was so I mean, it was just it was, it's like this creative imagination, you know, wonderful world. But for many, it's real, and it very well could have been real. I don't have I can't really say one way or another because I who am I? Right? What Oh, well, I mean, we can we can definitely say now granted any experiences that somebody had with with these entities that he created now. Now, granted? There there is there is the concept that we talked about with our guests later on tonight in our pre recorded segment of the air Gregorian, the idea that an entity can come to be from a mass consciousness and will now know about this for a moment, too. If you look at this from him, I don't mean to cut you off. No, no, go ahead. But from from when Corey mentioned, the blue avians, and he is in contact with them. And he became extremely, I can't remember the guys name. But someone else came up and said they had been in contact with them, too. And they were also with Gaia, then good, got extremely upset with that person. because of two reasons. One, he wanted that all for himself. But But if these blue avians truly existed, why couldn't they talk to somebody else? If they truly existed? Wouldn't you want someone else to also have seen them to have some backup there and say, Well, yeah. Yeah, of course. But the only reason that you would get mad is because you wanted it all for yourself. And if it's your creation, and you're trying to defend it and protect it, because it's your IP, and that means it ain't real. And it's all you well so that that's an issue.

 23:30

 24:48

There's there's no source better than the horse's mouth itself. Let's tell you that from Corey right now.

 24:56

Okay. Because of that, what did that cause you? to do with the Secret Space training, 25:02

what did it cause me to do? Yes. Like, for instance, 25:05

you went to You said you've done 20 and 20 and back journeys where you go away for over 20 years and you come back no trademark, and, okay. And you've done that. And you've done that many times, right?

25:19

Correct. That's the dramatization on top of the story. Like I said, 25:23

are you seeing a dramatization or is it real?

25:27

Part of its real part of its dramatization? Well, like I've said about all of this, what part is dramatization?

25:33

Be more specifically sure what part of the 20 and back is dramatization, and not real? Well, that 25:39

20 and back itself is my creation. That's why I trademarked it, and that's why it's part of my intellectual property.

25:45

So does that mean it's not real? It's Romanization?

25:49

What does it matter if it's real or not?

25:50

I'm asking you whether it was drummers ation, or was it real?

25:53

It's a real part of my dream or delusion, whatever you want to call it I created, created all of this as on top of the training that I did have, and the experiences that I did have. I extrapolated this stuff out and created it.

26:16

Okay, but there was collusion. You call it correct?

26:19

Yeah, y'all want to call it? Well, what 26:21

do you call it?

26:22

I call it my intellectual property. Yeah, yeah. Right.

26:31

Were the guy comes on. It was at that moment when Cory knew he had.

26:38

Yeah, and you know, it's interesting, because he makes no bones about saying this. And what it recalls for me vividly is the words of the lawyer of Alex Jones. Scene saying that, what what he does on air is a character. Right, that, that it's acting. And same thing here, you know, he's he's basically saying that well, I mean, he says that some of it is channeled, the, the Avians are channeled beings that he talks to, and that the 20 year journeys are utterly his intellectual property, he made them up, the only thing that may be real here is when he was young, in elementary school, he may have been taken to a military base. And, you know, Hey, Ben been given, like intelligence tests, who knows? Not at cars. I mean, I know cars or cars will was like a strategic base. I had bought news for bombers and stuff like that for a while, but, you know, I think about it in a way I can relate to because, you know, I am the pot calling the kettle black. At this moment, if I'm going to, you know, say something about Cory, then, you know, people gonna be like, or server Didn't you do yourself? Well, yes, I absolutely did. And this is where I can kind of draw the perspective game here. I had to live inside that character. If I was going to go through with it, including me talking to you remember, I said I, I would, I would try not to do shows with you too much about the subject because it became part of the story I wasn't comfortable lying to my friends. And you and Jim Perez Lo and, and, and then even Michael Sallows, when when he came on board, it there's a certain point where you have to separate the two things, but you're doing it under the guise that you're going to, you're creating a documentary, you want to get into the community, and you want to see it from the inside. And then you want to go where it goes. And that was what I had made the decision in my mind that wherever this goes, I'm gonna go with it for as long as I can. But I can't I can't live my whole life, it would have to fall apart eventually. But I mixed in enough proof to where there are some instances that I have personal, like the phone call, that did actually happen. And so for some other aspects, but there's a point where in his mind, because I had the same thought in my mind. He had to know Wait a second. I'm portraying this. See, like when you're on air, you're one character like you're saying with Alex on the off air, you're, you just go back to your normal person. He had he was in character off air, and he was telling people as he met them This story. Oh, yeah, it was legitimately actually, abs really? Absolutely. There. Yeah, that was the downfall. I was gonna say let's, let's hear that from the horse's mouth as well, because he goes into that in the deposition about how delivering it is true as part of the PR. And that's right here.

27:46

 30:19

I mean, listen, I have told you, I made up stuff on Twitter. And in this book, it says so. So, yes, I did make up stories about the secret space program extrapolated off of my experiences that I told you about earlier.

 30:37

Okay, fair enough. Thank you. So you stayed in one place, you've done three of these 20s and backs, that's an extrapolation. That's not reality.

 30:47

If y'all took about 10 minutes to read this, you will see, we talks about Corey Goode, the real person and Corey Goode, the persona, that this stuff is based off of all you have to do is read through this. And I mean, any want anyone in the jury will be able to read through it and make sense of that. But me delivering my intellectual property as if it's all absolutely true. Yes, that is definitely a part of the PR, and way to get this information out to the public.

 31:20

So it is not because it's not true.

 31:24

Not all of it, like I said, I have based, I have created, everything that's in this book was created, created off of my experiences, what I perceived as my experiences, or just created it as a content creator on top of and use those as reference.

31:42

Now that as part of that, where where he says that, you know, saying it as though it was true was part of the PR.

31:56

Yeah. You know, there's another story that that just came to my mind, I started thinking about it, in one instance, you would feel sorry for him if he, if he had these experiences, or whether or not they actually happened or not, but in his mind, maybe he dreamed them, and then they became part of his reality. And so over time, you start to tell like, a fifth sale kind of thing. And then you just get wrapped up in it. And there's really not much you could do about it. And you don't remember who you tell one story through or another, and then you just live it. And then the other aspect of it is something that may have actually occurred to where it affected him so much that it was real. And I think it was I think her name is Anjali or something like that, you know, where, you know, the cave that she was in and talk to the aliens. And for her, that experience is real now. My personal belief is that I think someone slipped or something and she had a full Ayahuasca experience or something like that. And I don't know I mean, that's pure speculation on my part, but it would make sense because it was an isolated event happened one time and that was it. But for him, it carried on now it's gone back to is, you know, the story has grown bigger and bigger and bigger, to where it's gone into childhood is well for now ahead, and he ran out of years and usable life to do all this stuff. So he had to create a way to create it, and he has the pointing back as well. Okay. One years and get it back.

33:31

I am not begrudging, any creator there room to create, I have not begrudging anybody in their room for the First Amendment to write whatever they please. They whatever they please however, repercussions happen things happen. He himself called the people who followed like a pied piper his story. Delusional won't call your if you call it a delusion, whatever, for his own experience. And, and, you know, when, when you see it happening, and you continue the action?

34:15

Yeah, that's when 34:17

it's a problem. Yeah, hey, Reddit, Toriel really taking advantage of people there their belief in something.

34:27

And he didn't keep in mind these depositions that he put out, in the very beginning, it was very important for his attorney and for him to know that these were going to be confidential. And essentially, there's no one would ever see or hear these in any way shape or form and then it would be concealed or whatever he thought whatever was told to him. He believed that no one would see or hear this now that you and I both know that that would just go into something with the expectation that it's going to leak out, so you better say things in it that are at least factual and truthful. So for that point, I'm glad he did come clean, so to speak, and say, Hey, but he but he was still, you could tell that when the attorney was asking him that question, he still was holding on to some aspects of it like, well, it was, it was my creation, based on my experience, you know, it's not you didn't make variants. So saying, what he experienced, was being a part of some sort of experiment once again, hey, for all we know that the US military was working with the local school system to figure out a better means for ASVAB. You know, yes. And used a group of elementary school children, and then then we're going to check in with him whenever they went for ASVAB at 18. Who knows? Who knows. But what he did was take that those events, and that's what I'm saying, you want to see that happen? Cool, man, you and I were part of a program on a military base. Okay. Everything else is fiction. Now. Now, the thing is, you kept pushing the fiction, when people started following in believing?

 35:32

 36:24

Exactly, exactly. It's just like, just like Tim McMillan. Macmillan, when when I first talked to him, I was still in the documentary, slash motor, whatever. But when I told him that I entered the Air Force as electronic intelligence operations specialist is 205-502-0570, depending on what level you're at, I told him that that was my job. And he basically said, Yes. And he called me on it. And I'm thinking, Okay, what is it? What is it that you actually think? He thinks that, oh, maybe I went in as a cook, and really just wanted to explain to everybody, you know, because as explained, you know, being places and whatever, maybe I read it all, seeing 20530 or 20550, or seven Oh, as my story just to create a new life or something. But no, it actually was. And that's the truth. And the thing for, for what's going on here is, is Corey has, we need to look at this even further. Because we need to get, there's got to be a psychological thing here that you might want to have someone explain because I've tried to all of these times I've been involved in like with bladder, with this community with various communities. I'm not trying to put bladder with you about community but but there's some similar aspects in several of these communities, that when it comes to fanaticism, period, there's similar aspects.

 37:58

 38:03

Yeah. And you see, and when you see that, you start drawing the parallels, and you go, Okay, there's a similar thing going on here, because they both have a very strong anti government class, you know, conspiracy, that conspiratorial mind process, and I get that I fully understand it. But yet, I don't fully understand it. And I do want to understand it. Because for me, a lot of my friends are in or in it. And I've met a lot of people that are true, genuinely sincere, good people. Yet, we have a very fundamental difference of opinion on what something is like the three videos from the from the Navy, I know what they are, in my mind. They know what they are in their mind. I feel like I'm prove it. And they feel they can prove it, and you're in an impasse. And they know that the person go, you know, I'm not going to ruin this friendship, because of this one thing, because I'm also an atheist. And I have to deal with this every day in my life. So maybe Cory has so much trauma that happened to him earlier in his life, that he felt that living in alternate reality was a was a way out for him to deal with. And that is what I personally believe. I think, if I could sit down with Cory for about two or three hours, and go, you know, I created a little ultimate little reality for myself and I lived in it for a while.

 39:38

Yeah, this was my escape from the PTSD was this alternate reality that made me very, very, very much akin to oh my god, what was that? I'm trying to remember the name of the graphic novel movie that came out a few years ago, where it was the same way it was a bunch of girls in a hospital, who were super nervous he craved the graphic. And that was that was their, their out that was their, your way of dealing with it and their shared experience in their shared world that they all went to to escape the tortures there every day. Yeah, here's where it gets. Here's where it gets weird when some people are trying to be a member of a community that really does a lot of these things, myself included, you know, when we come out, and we say like, Okay, I'm trying to rescue people in Afghanistan. And then next thing you know, I'm talking with Howard and Carole Baskin, and I'm involved in Tiger King and then I'm doing this the UFO thing, and, and here I am about to go to, well, you know what I'm about to sit on here. So here, I'm about to go do something pretty out there just to whoever's listening. I don't know everything about what he's going to do.

 39:58

 40:08

 40:17

 40:53

41:01

I know. But, you know, when you told you a lot of stuff that probably brother here, here's the thing, once again, is as my viewers know, I mean, I once push buttons for Alex Jones. You can say whatever you want, the minute that people start following the Pipers tune, and you continue the dialogue, right, in the same way, without handling it at that moment and going whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, hold on. Hold on, everybody. I know you're trying to say that you were in the Secret Space Force to like this is all part of a reality that I have created that comes from not only my PTSD roots, but my experiences through meditation. Okay, and that's kind of what you did with the guy with it was claiming he was also talking to the Blue Avians. He was like, No, you weren't, because that's my creation. Yeah. And he said, let's get into that right here. Actually, I've got that queued up about the blue avians being trademark. Okay, there you go.

41:12

41:57

42:05

42:15

You say you've been visited by over a six foot tall blue looking chicken type creature got blue avian trademark. Yes, that. So that's something that hasn't really happened. But that's a story you tell to assist people to something that was a part of my meditative state. And it was real, to me a real avatar, I really interface with a blue avian. It's my way of connecting to my higher self and connecting to higher information, to be able to bring down information that doesn't come from the human experience. It comes down from higher that's what people believe in this community is a part of many of our religious beliefs of higher density beings. Just like some people preach about angels, higher density beings, angels interchangeable.

42:20

42:23

42:29

 43:15

Now, don't get me wrong. I have numerous times I Have a Dream guide. I have a dream guide I have somebody that I go down a repetitive path every night to go talk to things like that it is it is a form of my meditation. Absolutely Now am I taking those messages or questions that I'm trying to have answered? That's normally what it is like? I sometimes boggling my mind and it's like okay, let's search elsewhere. Let's Let's go ask the guide and see what he knows.

 43:50

Is this don't you manifesting something that you can kind of like, like you almost say talking to yourself, but in your dream or in your dream life state that you somewhat have this entity that you utilize to help guide you even though it's still you? Yeah, yeah, no problem. That's what his blue avian is. That's cool. Now the question comes to bear once again when people start following the Pipers tune. what point did you divulge that?

 44:12

 44:26

At the point where they said Piper jumps off a cliff? You don't know what?

 44:30

Yeah, yeah. When he's just standing on the side of the cliff and keeps on playing, you know what I mean? Yeah, everybody

 44:45

I'm gonna bring up the rear and make sure we all make it. Oh, man. This is truly sad though. You know, and I won't defend Cory because he dug his own hole, but I I have to say this when I have a large amount of empathy and me to the point where it has ruined a very large portion of my life, I won't say ruined, I'll say that, that I, I don't have a normal life because of my empathy.

 44:48

45:16

Yeah, definitely your norm.

45:19

Right, I help I help and volunteer myself to the point where I, you know, I've run, I'll run myself in the ground. I've done it a couple of times, and people look at what are you doing? And like, well, I'm helping people. Yeah, but you're, you can't help anybody, if you run yourself on the ground. And I think was recorded the empathy part of me goes, this guy, you know, has, has a problem. And he is still dealing with it, because he's having a difficult time with this attorney, but he knows he's in an environment where this should be like a release for him. This should be the moment where he sits back and go, Wow, it's all out there. Now. I can, I can relax and actually live a life again, where people will understand why I did what I did. Because I explained it. Instead of man, I hope these are going to remain confidential. I hope no one ever sees them. And hats off to Steven cambian. For getting this out there. Because Steven cambian is probably done. A huge, you know, good for good. Yeah. Yeah. Tiger King.

46:33

I mean, it's quite clearly the fact of the head Had this been suppressed as requested. Yeah, once again, my my thing even even when it comes to Alex Jones is those who followed along.

46:47

Well, what happened on September 23.

46:51

And, and the fact of, you know, those those whose lives are affected in that way? Right, right. Exactly. Correct. And he had to live through that. Well, well, and there's, there's a whole bunch of people within a community who trusted somebody and trusted somebody because somebody that they trusted said you could trust them. Ya know, and, and to begin with, to, to look at somebody as mentor to look at somebody as even guru in a way as people do with some of the folks like David Wilcox, even even with Corey Goode. You know, because he was doing like DreamWorks seminars he was doing, he was doing spiritual work seminars, all kinds of, they're getting into areas that I would say, the USA having expertise. This is some of the things you've figured out how to do. I'm not gonna doubt anybody's power of minute meditation, I'm not going to doubt any communication with a being while in a meditative state. However, when you start weaving a story around that and selling thus as true, right, people come to you and say, I experienced that you go, man. Glad to hear it, too.

46:58

47:04

47:46

47:57

48:22

Yeah, man. Glad to get nope, 48:25

nope. And hear publicly and be like, Yeah, I wish you did. But unfortunately, like that's all hyperbole based on an experience that I had as a kid where I was part of a military joint experiment.

48:40

Yep. And we just heard that clip, and you played it. And that makes, it starts to make sense. It's hard. It's hard to listen to all of it. Now I can imagine if I would have been one of the followers of him and had believed what he had said. And then all of a sudden, I enjoyed it. I would have been, I would have been devastated. I would have been like, you know, and he must be getting calls or people go, Oh, my God, man, you, you, you, you. You did this and eating these two, he given other people PTSD, these people probably had, were living in his alternate universe, and finding that there was some peace and some solace there. And now, it comes out in this deposition that none of that was real. Then what? Then what does that mean? Does that mean everyone that has ever put his story has to come back and kind of retract everything and it was just like, I had to retract my own thing. I came back and, you know, just go and said, you know, we gotta clear this up. I can't let this go on anymore. And here he is, folks, just in case you didn't hear him a while ago. Here it is later on in the testimony or deposition, not testimony. testimonies are on growth. But here it is in the deposition in The Secret Space Program, no, there were others. Right? So if someone wants to know your question was to disparage anyone.

49:49

50:01

50:04

50:08

50:11

So my question is now if you're not the only one there, why couldn't someone else talk about their experience in a secret space program, as long as they don't talk about the stuff that I created, based on my real, my real IP here. And it says, I created a lot of the stuff I created. Dark Fleet Dark Fleet didn't exist before I talked about it. Now all these people are coming up, I was on Dark Fleet, I was on Dark Fleet. It's part of 50:41

50:20

my story fleets that are darker in color, the delusional they're using every bit of my IP, at these 100% of it. So they base all of their story on my IP, all of it, all of it. 100% Yes, just a free copy of your free copy. That's why guy is being sued word for word. Pretty much same color, same everything. No. You said pretty much or is it all?

50:44

51:00

51:05

It's pretty much they know, people will come in and they will say, Oh, okay, I was in The Secret Space Program, too. And all of these things that Corey has talked about? Well, yeah, I was a part of that too. Well, guess what? The stuff that I talked about some of it created out of my mind, in this book as a part of my IP, if they are out there making money and doing things to harm this IP, this storyline, then I say something publicly, if they're out there making money or saying things to harm this IP. Now granted, I am saying nothing to harm your IP. Think your eyebrows cool. Really great story really interesting. Like I said, tug my chain for a long time. It's where it's like, I don't know, I don't know. I don't know whether to call BS or not. And that's where a lot of people in the community were.

51:41

52:10

Let me give you something that happened with Michael salah. And I'm not going to in any way prior to harm Microsoft, because he was asking me questions about Corey Goode. He asked me if I knew Corey Goode. And I said no. And because I, you know, at the time, when we were talking about the secret space program, Michael Salah wanted my expertise in that area, which is somewhat, quite limited. But it's, there's a couple of very specific things that I did work on that, oddly enough, is coming back literally, like three hours ago. And you start to go, Okay, where are you going with this? And what he wanted me to do was to essentially confirm what Corey Goode was talking about, because he felt that I was more credible than Corey was on my stance in with my interaction with military my interaction with DARPA and things like this. So he wanted to know that aspect of it. And if it if Corey story made sense. I don't. Yeah. Sorry about that. You. Oh, no problem. And so at the time, I was trying to figure out where he was going with it. And basically, he wanted to validate for a story. But he wanted me to do the validation or the vetting of it. And I said that I can't I can't do that. Because I don't I don't know, Cory. I mean, I can check some other things. But Corey wasn't in the military. You know, so I don't know. And not in the military, no.

53:48

53:55

And you have to, you have to take things with a grain of salt, because here I am feeding Michael salah, my own line of BS. And at the same time, some actual proof which he was able to check out. He did. He did some things. And that's why he wrote that Nice defense thing. I mean, which I feel bad about. But at the same time, he was fishing for information for that, which to me, made Michael cells seem more legitimate because he was actually trying to figure things out. But then after the fact, I started reading about these council meetings or about DACA, Jupiter, and things like this. I go, Oh, my God, what did I just get my story through. But then I was like, You know what, it doesn't matter. Everybody in this community has a strength. They have something they offer to it for whatever it is, whether it's an entertainment purpose, which we now find out what it is, what Corey Goode was doing, yeah. Or from a factual standpoint that they either actually believe an event happened to them or be the event really did happen to them either way. They offer something to the community and everyone can get something from that. And I feel that that's important. But just like you, when someone starts pushing a story, and they're making money off of it, and they're, and they're doing all kinds of what I feel is manipulation of the community, it when you start manipulating community, especially when you start picking sides and making people believe me, you know him your own bubble, that kind of stuff. That's, that's a problem. And I'm not sure about that manipulation directly from Corey right here in this deposition.

 55:29

 55:36

Absolutely. NFR was after I had lost all of the weight because of my changing diet. I went to being a vegetarian. I lost weight, like it was a waterfall falling off of a mountain. And then over the months, and it was like, I believe so. Well, because I caution you not to divulge any privileged information.

 56:02

What's your understanding of why you why you sent a certain season the system

 56:07

after Gaia decided they were going to steal my intellectual property. They brought him in as the actor that repeated my testimony.

 56:22

Wow.

 56:24

Now no, there's that part. I was trying to find the part where he is talking about David Wilcox here. And let's see, it should be up around 44 right here off one book, right here. You know, that's what David Wilcock makes that connection.

 56:37

 56:40

You don't make that connection.

 56:42

.....

i i humor him? I don't I they I kind of started, you know, basing information off of what David said a little bit No, about the about the Law of One stuff. I was never a big subscriber to the Law of One.

56:59

Okay, so the Law of One books produced by I&I research in the 80s That's not so yeah, I mean, there is right there saying that he was actively creating, like, as David Wilcock would come out with something he would connect, and bridge his stuff with it and weave it together a lot.

57:06

57:20

57:21

And you know, that that in and of itself, once again, is manipulation of a community of people manipulation of a mindset. And when when you are willing to do such and profit from it. That's, that's when that's when it gets a little bit crazy. Now, here is the final admission that I'll play for tonight. And then we have one other clip, but here's him talking about his trips very, very close.

58:00

Did you ever go to space?

58:04

Did I ever go to space? Yes. I in my physical body? Yes. I don't believe so. But I travel astrally and I traveled out to outer space and once again, not what was ever represented, not what he ever really said was the case until now.

58:19

58:29

He was fighting aliens on Mars or the Moon stuff and like he was physically there. The story was not

 58:37

Oh, yeah, that's that's the PTSD that we played in the first clip. That's what the lawyer was asking was is your PTSD from fighting aliens? As you've mentioned, said I never said that's what my PD I never said that. I had PTSD. That's something that I share.

 58:57

Yeah, and then you kind of admitted that he had PTSD from his, from his childhood from growing I don't know if you played that part or not. But yeah, yeah, absolutely. And once again, if this is a narrative that he came up with, to to make himself the, the, I guess the the hero rock star in his in his own melodrama that protected him from PTSD as a child.

 59:06

 59:30

Cool. Yeah. That is cool. But now we're gonna have a class action lawsuit against them because we now have PTSD from dealing with the crap from well, they're they're gonna be some people though. Who? Yeah, you you. They do well. Much, much like the actions of Alex Jones. It wasn't necessarily what he said. It was the actions Of the people who were motivated by his words. It was it was the 10s of 1000s of people who annually emailed people saying what you're saying is fake what you're saying is fake we know you're a liar and and that was the aftermath that's that's what he has to pay recompense for right now that's that's kind of what Corey has to pay recompense for. Is a yes. Even even though like he says, These people are delusional. Um, then why are you feeding their delusion?

 59:40

 1:00:42

It's true. Yeah.

 1:00:46

That is a predatory action and here's the last clip that I'll Pillay and will in this is where they talk about his profit and his gain from this predatory action.

1:01:01

And how much approximately per year or per month are you collecting for above majestic

1:01:10

I think it's between like eight and 12,000 a month coming in.

1:01:17

So

1:01:18

is that looked at a long time so i

1:01:22

So yeah, there you have it. between eight and 12,000 a month that's that's as of right now.

1:01:28

That's just the on above majestic? Yeah. Yeah. He didn't mention anything else. So who knows what the actual photo

1:01:36

Yeah, he didn't mention a centering Chronicles. Ascension Chronicles sphere of influence. He didn't mention cosmic secret. He didn't mention any of the spiritual classes. offers online are a direct result of this, this world that he created, which is fine. If you created a world that's fine, even if you channeled

1:02:00

a world.

1:02:02

What's funny, too, is I mean, hey, I'm a big, big believer in the work of Edgar Casey, not a thing that he said did not come from a channeled session. All right, right. But fully disclosed that what he was doing was channeling what he was doing was channeling.

 1:02:20

Yeah. And then so you have

 1:02:24

plenty of followers and all accepted the fact that he was channeling.

 1:02:29

Yep. And Cory Cory Kidder went that route. And so do listen, here's the experience I had, I don't know if it actually happened or not. But this is, this is what I got from it. Make from it what you will, with it kind of like the the way Bob Lazar went, Bob Lazar said, Look, this is what happens. Here's why I work. Here's this and that, here's what was there. Here's what I did take it or leave it. That kind of thing. And that kind of like gave up. That's what gave was our stories. Length of time. You know, still holding. I mean, there's still people to this day. A lot of people to this day, that believe every aspect of the story even though many, many holes have been cut out of it for this. So there still has to be some stress there.

 1:03:18

Hey, loves Areum exists. Yes. been found has the properties. He said it did and right on the periodic table where he said it would be.

 1:03:29

Yep. And then the other part of me wants, I mean, how much influence the core Bell has on all of this. And you know, who influenced but, you know, we're back to Corey. He's, he's got a lot to deal with right now. And he's, and I'm not I'm not defending him and in no way sympathizing with him because he doesn't he just like I had to do, I took my thing, I had to deal with it, I'm still dealing with it. He has to do his thing, himself, and he has his way out of it. But at some point, he has to come like legitimately clean if he if something's true. And something's a fact, he has to know the difference. It sounds like he's got an issue with both. Like he can't tell the difference between truth and an actual fiction or fact. They're just simply different things. And he's living in it. And he still has to make an income from it. And so as a family to support and he's probably scared to death right now. Because he he stands to lose a lot because these depositions are now public. And there's gonna be a lot of a lot of kickback on this. And so well, it's much like it said about the situation of the hole that Alex Jones dug for himself. It's a fact of you have gotten to a point that of, of personal mania, you've gotten to a point where yes, like you said, you have played the part so Long that the part is now the norm. The part now exists outside of the studio. Part is now everyday life. And, and it gets to the point that nobody can tell you otherwise.

 1:04:39

 1:05:15

Yeah, if you have to live your character just like if, you know Jim Kirk and Spock are the same if I walked into a bar and Leonard Nimoy was standing there, and I started talking to him, and he started talking to me as Spock, I'd be like, Yo, dude, the fact of the fact is, once you have edified yourself and built yourself up on numerous fronts, but one of the one of the foundations is built upon this. Yeah. And then it comes to bear that this is not that.

 1:05:31

 1:05:53

I'm wondering if he, if he does things, and it can crumble yourself. And it can, it's the fact of you have to believe it more than anybody. Yeah. You know, and I'm curious if if he might need some help. I don't want I don't want to say what kind of help but he's gonna need some one to help him through this. Oh, yeah. Yeah,

 1:05:56

 1:06:08

 1:06:23

I mean, it's definitely in a you know, much, much like a juries moment right now. It's a big as, as we'd say, in youth work. It's a big come to Jesus moment. Yeah. There are there are no, there are no atheists in foxholes. And once you're in the foxhole, you get you get close to Jesus pretty quick. That's right. So yeah, he is he is definitely in the foxhole. Right now. He's definitely in the front of I don't think he's in front of the situation. But he's definitely in the front with the same bottle with him. And he he's probably trying to talk them out. But he's having a hard time.

 1:07:05

1:07:09

Well, well, and I think it's I think, Mike, it's really the fact of once again will he be held accountable for once again, the mania instilled in other people?

1:07:25

We talked about,

1:07:27

we are talking about the people who follow me and the people who believe this are delusional. And yet still, you keep feeding it to them. Yeah. And then you can't it can't be any different than a Tony Robbins situation, man. We're like, dude, in the first eight people burned their feet. Why'd you keep asking people to cross the fire that Saturday? Well, because the next one might not yet yeah, but the other eight did.

1:08:01

Yeah. And then he told him to step into this water before they got onto the fire and then ended up that was alcohol and it's like, at some point there is there's something that takes over and clicks were up believe your own hype. Right. And, and I think right now he is he is facing the music of his own hype. And, and hopefully will, will be at least held accountable in some way for his height battle. I don't know if it'll be monetarily or anything like that.

1:08:10

1:08:44

By all means, I mean, you know, there's some narcissistic personality traits. It is I have them too. So I can relate to that. But there's the other aspect of it is because the empathy part plays into it. He's not really showing that sign that oh, man, now that I think about it. Yeah, I may have screwed up.

1:09:05

Yeah. There's no real remorse in any of that. Usually, whenever you go to the Facebook page, 123478 hours, almost of deposition. Amongst all the sessions amongst eight, amongst eight hours, everything was very matter of fact, very cold. In the way that you heard it delivered today, referred literally legally as his intellectual property. Trademark, right.

 1:09:36

And like I said earlier, what, September 23, the days after this, he has to reflect back on it and now that it's being leaked, it's a whole new new game altogether, because he has lived the last few months thinking that this stuff was sealed and not gonna get out, blah, blah, blah. Or maybe he wasn't thinking that or oh, maybe he is mine, because he he couldn't answer your question. He's like, I know every employer I've ever worked for. And I know the name of the companies I've worked for. He couldn't think of things like that. And that is odd to me. I mean, you may, you may forget a company that you work for. But then when you remember the company were you remember, the name of it? Is the same seems a little bit off. Maybe there's some other underlying I don't want to don't want to create this. And by all means, Mr. Good, if you hear this, you're welcome to sue me for anything that I say. Because I'm really trying to not say things that I would normally like, if you and I were just sitting in a bar talking. So we've got people listening to, but at the same time, you've got some self reflection, that you need to sit there, and you need to sit and look at a mirror and go, Okay, I, this is what I think you should do. My opinion. I'm not an attorney, not necessarily, but I would look in that mirror and go, Is this the person? I want to be? You know, do I want to live this facade and then grinder just milk it for as long as I can? Or should I just come clean? And lick my wounds? And go on? Because you know, during this I found out I'm a good content creator? Or I'm a good sister that obviously, he did look at all that was done and Gaia is a huge companies like so absolutely. And they took the idea once again and ran with it after like he said they they had again, I'm not I'm not absolving them. No. for carrying this on.

 1:11:31

 1:11:45

Yeah. And Gaia is, that's what they do they bring controversial subject matter. somewhat questionable subject matter, kind of like the history Canada, you know, and they put it out there, knowing there might be some questions about it. But hey, you know,

 1:12:05

I don't I don't know, man, I don't I don't really know, I'm not trying to throw him under the bus. I'm not trying to say they're like the aliens or something. But I will I will pounce on Ancient Aliens every chance I get. That show is just the most utter, there is some interest? To say the least it's some of it.

 1:12:12

 1:12:24

1:12:28

Oh, and actually, they did they actually bring out some very Yes, controversial subject matter that they just don't have the balls to do. They do? Yeah, they do. And so and so he has a relationship that he is, I don't know, maybe I've talked to the people that own that work that company. And one of our conversations, actually, John Greenwald, put on the internet, and one of the several guys. But But anyway. So, you know, in my conversations with guy, I view them as an organization that is looking for material that that otherwise, probably won't be on other platforms, they're looking for something that makes them unique. And they found their niche, and they do well at it. Oh, great at it, they do great content. I'm a guy a subscriber. It's the fact of a few help push this paradigm. Yeah. And did they have at the beginning, they've got their disclaimer at the beginning of all, I should really put one at the beginning of curious realm, you know? I'm surprised I haven't yet that you know, the opinions expressed are not necessarily that of, of the network, network network. Or sponsors of the program, you know, because yeah, we get Hey, I am I am willing to believe the experimenter until proven otherwise.

1:13:15

1:14:05

Yes. Yeah. I agree.

1:14:07

That was situation and you are coming back at this point, at this point in saying that this all is woven fiction from channeled sessions that you had at this point.

1:14:25

Yeah. And if anything, I hope this deposition is held confidential, so I never have to admit it. Yeah. So we're seeing is we're seeing a video of a person who probably would not be saying the things he's saying if he knew that this deposition would become public. If he knew that. I think we would see a very different for you and me and brought that up in his show, too, because he brought up this as he says, you know, that we're seeing a different story than we would have if he knew that this like a pistol streamed live or something. We would get totally different answers. Oh, they asked if it was streamed live.

1:14:58

 1:15:00
Yeah, he

 1:15:01
was being streamed out to their law.

 1:15:05
Yeah, on the Zoom calls to the members of the attorneys in court and attorney asked specifically, you know, where, where exactly is it going? It's like, what do you mean?

 1:15:18
It's a zoom, call it just like if someone was on the phone with you, yeah. But now, I guess now they know when or when.

 1:15:25
And once again, just to be clear, folks that came out just in session three of this deposition, and I watched probably about six hours of this deposition. It came out in Session Three, that his intellectual property is the blue avians. He came up with that in his meditation sessions, they are his meditative guides, it came out that the Secret Space Program is made up that it is part of a woven fan fiction based upon an experience he had in in some sort of experiment when he was a kid. And it came out that he believes that the people who follow his what he claimed to be true, are delusional. Now, now remember, the fact that these delusional people were told what you were saying was true. Yeah. Not that they were channeled sessions, not the Hey, had you had you been upfront about channeled sessions? What have you once again, I am prone to believe the experiencer until proven otherwise? I would have believed your channeled sessions 110% until somebody proved that you didn't experience that in a channeled session.

 1:17:07
However, my first thought process, when you say it that way, is, I believe that you believe that what happened, happened during your telling experience, and that, that kind of absolves both of us of everything. At that point, it's like, I believe you believe it. I don't necessarily believe you actually did it. Like in the real world? He doesn't he doesn't.

 1:17:34
Because he knows it's a fiction.

 1:17:38

Yeah, he knows it's 100%. Perfect. And then that's the problem is that when he openly admits it, because he seemed danced around a little bit, but he came clean, because he knew he's under oath. And if he didn't, he would, he would lose that the loss, it would be probably lost. Anyway, he's under deposition, not under oath. He's not under oath in the deposition.

 1:17:55

 1:18:00

I'm sorry, sir. He is under oath. But

 1:18:03

I didn't think that they that they oversized him at the beginning of saying the firm, just a court reporter, and I didn't have our tour. It's almost exactly as if you're in court, you have to wait. I've done a lot of depositions, I've questioned people in depositions. And I've been in every state, I've probably done depositions, and maybe 25 states. And in all of the depositions I've been involved with, with, they have all started with them. These were to tell you what you're saying is truth, and bla bla, bla, bla, bla, raise your hand, and they do it in every every instance, I've never seen him not do it. But the but at the same essence, the deposition is a little bit more forgiving, in that it's understood you're not in a courtroom setting. And it's understood that you're not like ready for trial. So some information may not be under that. Now, he alluded to the 30 day rule that they were or his attorney did that they had just produced some of the information so they weren't sure some were duplicative or some of the information was not, and so forth. So I get I get that from the technical aspect, because the technical aspects I'm actually more knowledgeable on on what's on corporate for you, you already know, some of the court stuff. But, you know, but that's, that is a more of a procedural situation. Where, when he's talking, if he if he lies in a deposition is not the same as if he lies in court under Yeah, that and I think that's where you're probably leaning towards that way. Yeah. And that and that is somewhat true, because you're given more leeway in that you can make mistakes and you deposition that's why like two weeks after his deposition, he will receive a booklet and that booklet, will basically state that since your deposition. Yeah, if you have found the substance Currently that some of the information you've given is not true. And or not factual or maybe inaccurate. You have the opportunity now to clear if you do not clear that, and you go into court, and that deposition hasn't been corrected. At that point in time. Yeah, you read something that was in your deposition, say that was true and correct this time, then you can still be in contempt is? Well, at that point, you literally sign off and say, yes, I've read the deposition. And I know this for true. What I what I said in the deposition is what I know to be true. I don't think I've forgotten anything there. Because the deposition is really just exploratory, to find out what you know about what, right. Yeah, and what you knew or know about at the time of the deposition, and what you knew about what, at the time you knew about the White House? Like what happened? Yeah.

 1:18:11

 1:20:27

 1:20:49

 1:21:02

And, and that's just it, that is exactly what came out in this deposition is that he knew from the beginning, what he was saying was a fiction. Right. He knew from the beginning, whether whether it is a fiction, he was told under session, or a fiction that he made up based upon personal life experience, right, either way, he knew it was a fiction, and sold it as otherwise, and sold it as actual legitimately happening in the real world as everyone would have experienced. If someone would have been with him at the time that he did the things that he claimed he did, it wouldn't be him sitting on a couch with his eyes rolled back and looking at experience, they would have been everyone, you know, going Holy crap, we're on the moon.

 1:21:35

 1:21:56

And just because you didn't ask for the crowd of people to follow behind, you doesn't mean that you aren't accountable for the crowd, or people, their actions of the crowd of people that have gathered because of you and your actions. Yep. So and that's what we're really up against here is finding out like, I mean, we've already found out what he knows about the what and when we know that from the get go, he knew he was weaving a story of fan fiction, from a couple of experiences he had in life and from channeled experience, meditation sessions that he had. And then when you realize he was out of material, he had to create more material and the reason and wait for that material to exist, because he just, he couldn't account for time. They'd be like me going back and saying I was in the military. 20 years, I was at the military one year. So you know, I if I, if I said that, then I'd have to go back and create all this other stuff. And so yeah, the differences are rolled. Yeah. So he had to create, he had to create these 20 year regenerative sessions of fine, yeah, that could be compressed. He's like, wow, God, the theory of quantum mechanics, great work of fiction.

 1:22:39

1:23:21

1:23:25

Yeah, and more power to it.

1:23:28

All kinds of awards for your fiction had you just said it was fiction? Once again, to literally call the people who followed you down the road delusional and makes you more accountable for what you told them after realizing they were following you and that they were delusional. Like, I'm sorry. No, know. It's a sin. You're now accountable.

1:23:59

Exactly. And then calling yourself delusional doesn't really make it doesn't help the cause. Well, well, I was drunk. When all this happened. We were all drunk. So we all told the same story about the flow foot. But it was only a salamander.

1:24:23

Yeah, yeah. So that's where we're at right now with the story of Corey Goode folks that is that is basically what has come down the pipe. I literally got a text from somebody while we were talking on air here, Mike, like, Hey, what's up with Corey Goode? You should tune into the show. We're talking about that right now. That's awesome. Yeah, it is it is rippling through the community as we speak. I want to give my personal thanks not only to you as always, but to you for building the bridge between us and Steve cambian over at truth seekers, Steve, you're doing the Lord's work over there, my man, keep doing what you're doing.

1:25:10

He deserves a lot of credit, man. He has the balls to do this and a letter a, like a cease and desist letter just saw, to not do this. And he, you know, basically, the, the attorneys have good, the good different people with an attorney made a huge mistake. And that mistake is why these are out there. And it's also why there's nothing they can really do about it. But you can't put the toothpaste back into the tube, now it's out. So we'll, we'll see what happens. But again, like you say, he became me and I consider him a friend. And I, I think that he's done a wonderful job and incredible job at this. And, you know, more power to him, you know? Yeah. So definitely take a look at that and post the commentary in the panel that he had, on his show when he was releasing this information. Some of the panel members that he had had a lot to say that are directly connected to this. So it's very interesting to definitely check that out as well. And he finally made a playlist he hasn't had a playlist ever until this week. So now he has a place.

1:26:32

Well, once again, Steven cambian thank you for all that you're doing over there truth seekers. Thank you, Mike for always being willing to come on always being willing to build these bridges of communication and information on our show and for our community. For those of you out there. All I can say is, once again, the reason I posted that video earlier today, we've got to learn to filter ourselves. We've got to learn to temper ourselves, we've got to learn to be ready for what appears to just be what is and if it smells funky, it might be funky. You know, there were a lot of extreme claims made by Corey Goode that could not be backed up by fact. And you you really do have to consider that you really do have to stop and think about that. That's a he was somebody that I my shoulders always shrugged. Every time somebody mentioned him like, Oh, what do you think about Corey Goode? And I'm like, I don't know. I don't know. I don't know. That's an amazing story. Do we have secret programs? Yes. Do we do we have I mean, good lord, the ex 37 B we talk about all the time flying over our head for two and a half years before we ever heard about it landing. So yeah, we we have these programs. We have programs don't get me wrong. Do we have programs like what he's talking about where we are age regressing people after a 20 year trip beyond? I don't? I don't think so. But amazing fiction. If you're out there writing it, except awards go out there be proud of the fiction that you were creating and crafting. Be willing to see it is thus please do not sell it as that it is hurtful to communities. It is hurtful to those who are such a stone cold believer, as my favorite song says that.

1:28:54

Extraordinary claims

1:28:55

that they're that they're unwavering. When it comes to believing somebody that comes through a source that they like, right? You know, I like this guy. I like his research. He's great. He says this guy is cool. I believe him. And we have to be careful of that. We have to be wary of that within communities. Michael, thank you as always, for your time. Let people know where they can go to follow the work of five by five news where they can keep up with you. Everything else my good man.

1:29:37

Probably the the best place would be to go to YouTube and search for five by five minutes with this 5x Five news. There you will you'll find our channel but you'll find that it's sparse at the moment for the last few months because I've been working on several projects. But that will change here in the first week of January. have a new video coming out that will go back into the the videos that were brought up by the Navy and explore them in a way that you've never seen before. And the all new stuff, all different, nothing like you've ever seen. So that's, that's what's coming. But yeah, that's it just five or five News on YouTube, it'd be the primary source and Twitter, you can catch me on Twitter, if you want to interact with me. That would be probably the best way to do it. And I'm very open. there as far as you know, and that was don't ask the question that you don't want a full answer to because you're gonna get it for an honest answer to 1:30:47

1:30:40

that I love you, buddy. We got to. Yeah, I really appreciate you being in my life. I'm so happy that, you know, put us together and absolutely. And you've been a pillar during the journalist and someone to talk to that knows a whole lot more about this subject matter than than I do when it comes when it comes to this stuff. I've learned more from you than I think you've learned from me to be honest with you. Thank you. Thank you. I've learned an insane amount from you, though, Mike. Appreciate it. So I want to thank you for your time. As always, thank you so much for the Brill bridge that you have helped build between truth seekers and Steve cambian. And us we're gonna go ahead and let you go my man while we head on out to commercial break, and you got to change something you can't No longer can you say be good at it.

1:31:12

1:31:34

1:31:39

That's right. No, it's Stay curious now.

1:31:45

Curious okay, because I was gonna say the good at him. I have no meaning now.

1:31:50

Yeah, no more. No. She can't be good. No more of that. I don't know if that would be politely accepted anymore. All right. Take care of my friend be good and be safe after you. Take care of it. While you are online checking out everything for Mike turbo, folks. Of course make sure to stop on by curious Rome curious. rome.com is your home. For all of the episodes that is where

Well hello everybody and welcome back from this commercial break. Our guest in this segment is Archbishop James cloud he where it is booked go. Wow. There it is. He is the author of walking with ghosts. an exorcism memoir of the paranormal we have had him on numerous times talking about demonology talking about spirits talking about the world of the paranormal, exorcisms and the exorcism ik process. However, I wanted to have him on going into the new year. This is this is a time of year for you know, new beginnings for a lot of people things like that. And I just I just wanted to I wanted to go into the I guess the steps before full on possession happens of a soul and and I know As we talk about a lot of things on this show, folks, we talk about a lot of topics. As many of you know I myself am a former Catholic seminarian, no longer a hugely practicing Catholic go to Mass a few times a year. My spiritual choices but I guard myself I keep myself close to what I know to be my God. I keep myself spiritually grounded I keep myself as guarded as one can possibly get, I think because I spent years studying the the world of demonology exorcism and it's interesting. The Welcome Welcome back to the show. Archbishop James cloud. How are you doing?

1:40:53

I'm doing great. How about you doing all right, um, where I was going with this was a many years ago, I was introduced to the amazing Malikai Martin Fowler Malikai Martin was an exorcist. He wrote numerous books. He was one of the only Jesuits to ever be fully relieved of his duties by the by the pope himself. Just like you, you've, you've done more than enough spiritual battle, everything else you you are relieved of duty, sir. And his book hostage to the devil. Somewhere back here on the shelves, I have a first print copy of it. In that book that was the first time and hearing him on Coast to Coast many years ago when he was still alive. Was was the first time that I was ever really introduced to the concept of demoniacal obsession. And it really rang home to me as somebody who had his battles with addiction, things like that. This, this concept of relinquishment of the will to something other than yourself. And then being that being a big root of and that that's what Malikai, Martin said was that after years of being an exorcist, after years of this kind of spiritual work, he walked the streets and saw so many people in a state of demonized obsession. And and that was that was something that he highly warned about was this state of surrender of the will to something. And I think that's a topic that bears discussion. So let's, let's start getting into that a little bit.

1:40:56

1:42:55

Sure, absolutely. Where would you like me to start?

1:43:01

Well, I guess, you know, let's, it's hard to not really start at at the beginning, you know, and the idea of are there are there entities beings, things out there that are actively stalking us? Sure, that would be that would be the first question because I think for anybody to, I mean, first off to to accept the concept that you might be demonically possessed or possessed by a by an invading spirit, you would have to believe in the afterlife believe in good and evil, and believe in the concept of an evil spirit or an ill willed spirit to begin with?

1:43:56

Sure, well, you know what, there are a lot of ways that a person can garner the intention of the diabolic. And in some of the ways would probably surprise individuals that are listening or would listen in the future. Some ways could include pornography. That because a demon of lust, this fall, gets the attention of this person watching pornography. And then that person has fantasies, the demonic influences, hey, you know, you got all these awesome fantasies. Why don't we step it up a notch and let's see what happens if presented with the opportunity to act on the fantasies and then it just snowballs from there and then a marriage is destroyed. You know, children are hurt because mom or dad is no longer in the home or you know, Something like that. And that fits the diabolic game plan because demons are out for nothing but the destruction and ruination of the human spirit. Or another way could be constantly obsessed with watching ghost stories, and thinking to yourself, Man, that it's scary, but how cool would that be to seek something like that? And then that Garner's the attention of the diabolic and they start watching observing you. And then all of a sudden, they're partnering with you in making the How cool would that be to see part come to reality? And then that snowballs from there into something else? I mean, I'm not saying watching a ghost story is going to get you obsessed or possessed or infested or anything like that. I'm just saying. Yeah, if you are making that desire or fantasy, a major part of your life, the possibility exists, that a diabolic could latch on simply for that reason. Because in some way, it's an invitation to that but yeah, that's how a lot of things start and or even demons of wrath. You know, you you're naturally honoree person, I'll just say honoree person. But the demon of wrath comes in watch it, he's like, Hey, you'd like to kick it up a notch. So I'll help them kick in, or hurt, kick it up a notch. And we'll go from there. And now that person's in prison, their life is ruined, and et cetera, et cetera.

1:46:52

Well, innate, you know, we've had the conversation before with you about the concept of opening the window, so to speak. And like you're saying, and intent has a lot to do with that, whether whether or not you're playing with a Ouija board, whether or not you're drawing circles of protection on the ground, what have you. You don't have to do that, to invite these spirits to come along and play. Not at all. And I think that's an important thing to note. You also don't have to believe in them. You know, them, for them to come along and play they they play by a different set of rules. And we've had the conversation. And I find it really interesting that you bring up the idea that watching these things can put you in a mindset that opens a window that invites the vampire in Absolutely. And the main reason I bring it up is because they're within this community in urine a lot of the same communities that I met on social media, a lot of the same adjunct communities when it comes to paranormal such as UFOs, UAPs, cryptids, things like that. And we have had the conversation a few times with Jared McClellan about the the idea that there may be other entities that are using our preconceived notion of what we would accept. Sure, so if you're out in the middle of the woods and it's like that entities there but you're somebody who's open to an experience with Bigfoot and you're like man, you know, this is this is squashing territory. I hope I have a site where they can tuner on that and actively use your belief and want for that as a means by which to encounter you know, the Bible calls those deceiving spirits or lying spirits. Yeah, they do exactly what you're describing.

 1:49:05

Well, and Nathaniel Gillis says the same thing when it comes to alien abduction, not that there isn't not that there aren't cases of alien abduction, things like that, but many cases of alien encounter things like that may or may actively be experiences with the demonic or experiences with a darker entity that is using your power of consent. Yeah, absolutely.

 1:49:35

 1:49:36

Now how does one go about x? I guess? Because you can you can and this this surprises a lot of people but this is this is how false confessions end up happening with with police. You can falsely give consent you can you can accidentally get consent, you can give consent without knowing it.

 1:50:04

Sure you can.

 1:50:05

Let's get into that a little bit because I'm holding in my hand right now the Roman ritual, which is actively the, the part of the, the many books given to Catholic priests, I don't think many of them get the ritual. Nowadays, the Vatican has reopened the school of exorcism as of 2014 2012. And it's interesting to me because I think, for a long time, there was a shy away from from this concept of the existence of an evil the existence of something other than men, it was right up around the same time that they started saying the existence of aliens the existence of UFOs does not revoke any spirituality, it does not revoke any salvific act of Christ. Things like that, that they reopened this School of Theology exorcism. And now, I guess what comes to bear and the question that comes to mind for me is nowhere in this book, it gives a lot of instruction on how to find an exorcist, it gives a lot of instruction on what an exorcist should be. How they should prepare themselves for an exorcism. Yeah, and it gives a few things on how to how, how to identify somebody who might be possessed, it even goes into the fact of you know, you need to contact physicians, make sure that they are not mentally incapable in some way. However, it it gives no warning about, quote, The narrow occasion of sin, or, or how one how one gets to this point. So I guess what the question that comes to bear for me is, how are these priests even supposed to be able to teach somebody how to avoid it? Like the seminary and spend time learning to proselytize and teach these things, like, if it's not being taught to the common seminarian, that this is the case. How are we supposed to avoid that near occasion of sin?

1:52:47

Well, I think that's one of the biggest disservices the seminaries do, you know, they, they talk about, you know, the path of salvation, the scientific method message, and you know, the atonement of Christ and repentance, which is all awesome. I mean, that's great. But they also have to teach the reality of the evil one in the world, and the minions of the evil one that are actively trying to devour our souls. I mean, the Bible says Your enemy is like a roaring lion seeking someone to devour. I mean, it makes no bones about it, the devil is real, his minions are real, and everything in between that are trying to put a wedge between you and God. And that, that really needs to be pushed home when it comes to the to avoiding the near occasion of sin. Because if you are, you know, actively involved in your flavor of the month sin, you. You open yourself up to the possibility that a diabolic might say, Hey, I like what you're doing here. I like you're giving God the finger. So let's go ahead and see what we can do with that. Yeah. And it goes from there. Because you know, your listeners have to remember, the devil and the demonic hordes can do nothing to hurt God himself or the angelic cause, I mean, literally he, they can do nothing to hurt God. The next best thing is to hurt those he loves. And by proxy, hurts God's heart. And so that's the real push. You know, people ask, Well, why would a demon be interested in me because God created you in His image and he loves you. He wants you to be with him. And these creatures are so full of vile and hate and wickedness that are utterly outside redemption. They want you to be Be with them. And by doing so, they can hurt God's heart by proxy. And so people need to understand. God has, you know, avoiding the near occasion of sin. God doesn't put the rules of, you know, thou shalt, and thou shalt not into the Bible to be, you know, the divine buzzkill for fun and everything else. He says, don't do these things, basically, because you're going to wind up being hurt. As a result of doing these things you're going to be in, you're going to experience trauma, you're going to experience pain, you might even be killed in the practice of these things. Don't do them. But you know, we as humans, just as Lucifer did, in his pride, we in our pride go, Well, it sounds fun, what what's a little, what's the harm in having a little fun or doing you know, x, y, z? Well, the harm comes in the consequences that follow. And a lot of them are natural consequences, not even judgment. I mean, it's just the natural flow of a course of events, such as you know, because I'm also a master's level substance abuse counselor, as well as a mental health professional. So the substance users I've encountered in the past, you know, they start off, hey, they just need a little extra pep. So I'll just use a little bit of math, be able to clean the house, take care of the kids. I mean, these are like soccer moms. Oh, yeah. And, you know, normal, they're not coming from the wrong side of the tracks or anything like that. And they're like, just a little bit, you know, just to help. And then that progresses, until now they're using IV drugs, they're, they're selling themselves or their bodies for the substances, or they're selling all their things, they lose their kids, they, I mean, it just snowballs. And this is the things that God is saying, You need to avoid the near occasion of sin, because crap will happen. You don't listen, it rolls downhill.

 1:57:11

And, and quite literally, I can say that and attest to it. Because I lived a good life I did I did good things I helped. I was involved in my church community, I was an assistant youth minister, I taught religion and spirituality. That did not mean that I wasn't fighting my own demons on the side. And that because of that, and because of choices that I had made, especially the choice of it's all too much now. I don't want to feel it anymore.

 1:57:53

Yeah, yeah.

 1:57:54

And, and quite literally, that's that that's what I traced it back to father was was the fact of after leaving the seminary, the pain of that the really more the the imagined pain of an imagined failure. Yeah, man, only only I got 10 fingers that every every finger that enters the seminary, one might come out with a collar, you know. So my odds were not on favorite to begin with much, much less of the fact of I was there for a spiritual lesson, not not there to achieve an ultimate goal. Sure. And I put that on myself. I put myself in the situation of feeling those things. And through years of working and helping other people. I was not working and helping myself.

 1:59:00

Yeah, and that's, you know, that's a legitimate problem, not Yelpers never helped themselves. Oh, never take time for self care.

 1:59:10

Yeah, yeah. And that's just it. It led me down a path where I didn't want to feel anymore. I didn't want to be connected to that anymore. And now I find myself many years later, sometimes struggling for the connection that I had with ease. You know, because I was somebody who enjoyed ecstatic prayer and enjoyed my ecstatic connection. And now I struggle with that. So that's one of the many repercussions that I've had to deal with because of the choices that I made to disconnect myself and become somebody who Yeah, honest He was deemed maniacally obsessed, I had surrendered my will to a substance.

2:00:07

Yeah, yeah.

2:00:11

And you know what, there's a very bright, glowing, illuminating silvercloud Oh, you're lining please. And in that, is it the fact that and this is something your listeners can take home and apply to their own lives and hopefully will help them down the road, or if they're going through it now, and they're feeling this can help them now. I've ran into so many people in my professional life, you know, as a substance counselor or mental health counselor, they say, you know, I've done it and even as a clergyman, you know, I've done so many things, how could I ever even remotely try to come back from it? You know, how can I even remotely repair what I've, I've destroyed? You know, how do I build back those bridges that are now not only on fire, but got Newt? And Scripture tells us, one, if you're having a, you feel like God would never accept you, back for whatever reason, you know, this XYZ sins, that have led to tremendous consequences in a person's life, that the scriptures remind us, His mercy is new every morning. His love for us is unfailing. And if we put our trust solely in Christ, he said, He promises us He'll never leave us nor forsake us. And so it's a matter of reinvesting in the relationship with God, or reinvesting in the building and reinventing of one's own self, in sector in the secular context, to build up their life again, after it's been destroyed. Because the beauty of this life is that as long as you have breath, there is still a chance. And at redemption, there is still a chance at renewal. And there is still a chance at creating a better life than the one you had before. But it takes us getting us out of that mindset that Oh, well. God would never accept me. Or how could people ever accept me if they know I used substance? Or how could ever anyone ever accept me if they knew I used to be an adulterer or murdered someone in anger? Or how could anyone you know, you can play the scenarios, but they all end up in the same place? How could I actually be something more than I think I am? Well, the the answer is, God says, if if you put your faith in Christ, you are a child of God, you are his, he loves you. And in that state, you can call him ABA, which in Aramaic literally means Daddy, you can crawl up on his chest, into his lap and say, Daddy, I'm having this problem. Help me. And he will, he'll send the Holy Spirit to work with you, build you up, and make you into an entirely new creation.

2:03:54

And, again, with that in mind, I mean, a lot of the reason I wanted to do this episode with you father was because we're coming up on the New Year. time when people are really dedicating their lives to new causes. We're coming up on Christmas time, a time where a lot of people have spiritual turmoil, and turn to these turn to these things to once again, dull their senses or dull the pain that they may be experiencing. And believe me folks, once again I've been there there is a way back. There is a way to walk yourself back. It begins with forgiving yourself. Not Not forgetting what you are not forgetting what you've done or the path that led you to where you are remember it remember it well remember it markedly in your life. But also remember that there is a path back you you can forgive yourself for being human and having a fault and making a Bad choice, and just not make that choice again. Now, with that being said, for all those out there who may not be experiencing this obsession, this point of obsession themselves? How can people spot this point of obsession in their loved ones? How can they I guess start to see the fact that somebody close to them has relinquished their will.

2:05:39

I think one of the first basic steps is to evaluate what does that person focus on in their life? You know, what, what is that thing, or things which take up a good portion of their time doing thinking about participating in that sort of thing, you know, if, if a good chunk of your life, you know, so I'll throw this out there to a lot of, I've had to exercise a lot of paranormal investigators for this very reason. So I say this from a point of experience, not of judgment or anything else, because that's not my job to judge. I'm here to walk with people and warn, but ultimately, what they do that's on them. But many paranormal investigators devote their entire life and build their entire identity around going to graveyards, trying to conjure spirits, talk to spirits, talk to the dead, you know, get quote unquote, proof, even though copious amounts of proof exists, that there's something other than just what we can see, and touch and experience with our five senses that actually exist in the world, you know, they build up, they focus everything on contacting the other side, or however you want to, you know, frame that, but, and then are totally surprised when they get a haunting and infestation of possession and obsession, or oppression in their own lives. And they're like, Oh, I was just helping others and just look, no, you are actually opening up doors at every chance of opening every door in your obsession, because this is what it really is an obsession with the paranormal.

2:07:53

You know, what, so

2:07:55

what a healthy interest in the paranormal would most likely look like is? You acknowledge, yeah, there's some freaky deaky things out there. You know, yeah, there's some really weird things that happen. You might investigate it at the request of the church, to go out and say, Hey, let's look at this, let's get some evidence taken back to the church, is there enough evidence for a priest or a bishop or whomever to come out from the church and address these things using the rite of exorcism or whatnot to help these people and then we move on. That would be a healthy, because there's a purpose to it. It's not just, you know, the whole identity of who you are. And I think you could apply that to most any other thing in this life. If you identify with only I'm so rich, and I'm so powerful, and I'm so famous, this is who I am. And this is what makes me me. Well, the demons of pride would love to have a piece of you. Yeah, you know, the, the real, but that's why the Scriptures tell us time and time again our identity should be found in Christ. Not in anything else in this life. Because of the fact that you do have little predators that watch you circle you and look for your, your flavor of the month since shall we say? Yeah, yeah,

2:09:40

I'm gonna I'm gonna start the you know, like, like sin basket. Sin basket.com. That'll be it. Where you can get your monthly basket of sin sent to you or your loved one. City your choice you can get online basket, you know, be exposed to new sins.

2:10:04

You betcha open it with your family and your children every month.

2:10:10

No better Christmas gift

2:10:20

Yeah, but it's fun not to make too much levity about the situation but we are sure Sure. We have, I guess especially here in the West a very narrow view of these things and and I remember we've had the conversation I've had the conversation on the show before about my, my experiences with the paranormal with shadow people, shadow people that pull reached right on out and touched me. And when I took that to my spiritual director, and and mentioned it to him, he was like, yeah, the church didn't really have a teaching on that. And that's when a lot of my real issues began. Because I could not reconcile the fact that the church didn't have a teaching on that you ever teaching on the fact that apparently, these these evil critters are stalking my soul around every corner? As St. Augustine said, Yeah, but, but you're telling me there's no teaching on that.

2:11:45

Channel. What's funny with that is if that spiritual director knew His scriptures, not just the church tradition, but knew His scriptures. There would be copious amounts of teachings on it and shadow people are found in the book of Job. Which, by I don't think I ever hear anyone talking about

2:12:08

you. Go ahead. No, no, please, you go ahead.

2:12:14

Oh, well, I was gonna say a shadow person appeared to one of Job's friends and was telling lies to try to get job away from it. God Yeah. Then to you know, curse God. Like his wife said you know Curse God and die job you know, life sucks. Yeah. And but the shadow person appeared and a person should read that I believe it's Job chapter four. If memory serves, and how I'm doing comes into the room, it produces chills, he felt, you know, his bones were shaking or something like that and started talking to him. So there's absolutely teachings and references in the scriptures to all paranormal activities. But people have to know the Scriptures. Yeah, and the saddest thing is that today most ministers Protestant as well as Catholic of all flavors, you know, Roman, Orthodox, Coptic etc They don't get into the scriptures like they should and therefore they fall to air as a result well and you know job job particularly is is one that I give it as an example of the fact of anybody can be tortured sure, because Joe job was not of the people of God know he believed in God he was a righteous man he lived right and this is this is the example that I give to people of you know, like there's there's many a path to enlightenment and the other the other side you know, Job is a prime example where even Job had the Eye of God yeah, he was he was not somebody who went to the temple he was not somebody who gave birth offering or anything like that yet Job had not only the Eye of God but the favor of God and so much so that a here in job we see the devil pop up in the heavenly court, so apparently, they're still cool.

 2:14:43

Yeah, he still has access, apparently court.

 2:14:47

You know, like, apparently he can still pop up and be like, Hey, what's up?

 2:14:53

So, the reason why He's the accuser of the brethren, that's it, that's it. So I'm not gonna say Full on collusion with God, but but the acceptance of the fact of their head if there has to be the other. Otherwise, otherwise we are we are puppets on strings, we don't have freewill, we don't have choice to choose that love. Above all else, and without choice, you just be a robot and blindly following.

 2:14:56

 2:15:20

 2:15:25

Exactly. And and in addition to that, you see the fact that this person who is not of God is perfectly accepted by God to be well, I guess made example of and, and tortured by the evil forces.

2:15:52

And the thing was job is, you know, Job is the oldest book written in the Bible. That's actually the oldest written book, Bible. And job. So Job didn't have necessarily the law, you know, the Judaic law, even though, I suppose you could assume that he knew about the law, we really don't know where Job was located. We don't even know when Job occurred, the book of Job occurred. We just know that was a very, very long time ago. And if if he did not know, the law of God, St. Paul brings out you know, if no one's ever heard of Christ, or the law or anything like that, that they become a law unto themselves by natural law. And so Job would have followed what naturally, His conscience was telling them, hey, you know, don't steal, don't kill don't, you know, basically, the law, but without the law, similar to like, a lot of the Native American religious tenants and such, they had a lot of excellent law, basically, to themselves, but they'd never heard of the Jews or for Christ or anyone else. And so St. Paul says, Those that have never heard. They're judged by the light received. However, St. Paul then says, So if Job had heard about the law, or had heard about Christ, then he's liable to the law or to Christ depends. And of course, Christ hadn't come down with his advent at that time, but it would have been, he would have been liable under the law, had he ever heard of it? So that's the distinction I want to make with job on that. Sure. Sure.

2:17:45

Absolutely. I mean, that was the that was the act of running joke in the seminary all the time act. Yeah. Oh, just so you know, can't do that when, you know now. Just not the case, just educating your conscience. Now, you're screwed. Yeah. But it's, it's interesting to consider the fact that we can be tested we can be, we can get poked, we can be prodded. Even once again, if you are not a person of faith, because job, not a person of faith, got a whole book in the Bible about him. Pretty, pretty big example, to the Jewish people, of how to how to get through trial and tribulation, things like that. Even even the turn of phrase, the patience of Job comes from it. But he was not a man of faith. He was I mean, he believed in something greater than himself, the big capital G, but he did not believe in the God of the Hebrews.

2:19:09

Now, not necessarily, yeah, we don't know.

2:19:12

Yeah, there's so we have to consider that we have to consider the fact that just because you don't ascribe to it, just to loop it back to the beginning of the conversation just just because you don't believe in them, doesn't mean they don't have a strong belief in you.

2:19:30

Absolutely.

2:19:32

And with that in mind, how do we how does the average person I guess, begin to spot this influence, how can we how can we guard against it? What what kind of things and like you were saying earlier things like even the most casual of things can become obsession, when we're not well Not taking carefully?

2:20:03

Well, one, it's kind of gets into the EU, for those that may have a reference point for this the a DA program, taking that self, you know, that moral inventory of yourself sure that fearless moral inventory? Taking a good hard look at yourself,

2:20:24

2:20:26

you know, what is most important in your life? What are you trying to get out of it? How are you treating others? How are you actively looking for something larger than yourself? What does that look like? What are the characteristics of it? What are your characteristics? Is there something that's starting to seem like it's taken more time in your life? Because you're focusing on it? What is that is, is that healthy? Is that not healthy? Because Peck even too much exercise can kill a person, you know, they get overboard and have a heart attack or stroke or something else, because they're just so gung ho. And, or they start taking steroids or, you know, go down the hill. But 2:21:24

2:21:20

even even healthy things, if taken to an extreme can be bad for you. You know, you drink too much water, your kidneys are crap out, and you'll die. But you need water everyday to live. So you could even look at it at that, you know, am I drinking too much metaphorical water in my life from one source? And is that becoming more prevalent in my life. But you also got to consider you know, these guys are predators. So even if you're, quite honestly, even if you're living a very moral life, and, and whatnot, and even going to church going to the mass, or attending your local Protestant church, or whatever that is, if you're, you know, you're really gung ho on fire for God, you are still going to have attacks, you're still going to have these things that look at you waiting for an opening. There's actually even me online. More specially if you have a color, more especially, you have to very much guard yourself. Because and, you know, people because I've had to exercise church buildings. I'll just throw that out there. Sure. Because people will say, Oh, well, the double can't come in the church. It's a holy place. Well, let's break tag there.

2:22:53

2:22:57

Let's unpack this. It's the church technically is the people. Yeah, the building we call a church is where the people the church actually gather to have church. Yeah, and so Absolutely, that's why you know, crosses can statues of Mary can weep blood and things can go crazy, you know, fly around a church or Yeah, I mean, just because it's a quote unquote, holy place does not mean yeah protected that is all inanimate object ever. Not me not not to say that there has not been a not not many people realize that there are numerous forms of exorcism. Yeah, there is exorcism of the soul and the person and their neck and there is exorcism of places and things. And whenever you are consecrating ground for a cemetery for a church, what have you that is exorcism according to St. Michael in the Archangels. That is, that is a very specific form of exorcism. It is the same form of exorcism that is performed at the time of baptism in the Catholic Church.

2:23:29

2:24:15

Were a form of exorcism

2:24:18

where there is literally a small exorcism performed before the baptismal right to basically sanctified the child as a holy place themselves as edifice of God. And honestly, like a water of baptism is an exorcism. Absolutely. On top of it. Yeah.

2:24:36

2:24:41

And, you know, it's not to get holy roller or anything like that, folks, but it is to recognize that these are the roots of it. And you can't acknowledge one thing without acknowledging the other.

2:24:57

And we really do have to acknowledge that if we as a society have become obsessed. Whether it's whether it's far left far right. You're we've gotten to a point where there are families that will not get together this Christmas. Because of their obsession, politically, yeah. So politically obsessed are so obsessed with the decision of somebody else, and why they made that decision, that they still cannot see them as a human being, and occupy the same space as them. Yeah. And when you stop and think about that, that that's a huge tool. That's a huge tool of control on many, many, many levels. But when you're talking about a form of spiritual control, when you are talking about a form of spiritual oppression, brother, that's it. Yep. And, and people are putting themselves square in it regularly and, and giving their energy to that, and putting their energy into that. And it is, it is no less or no different than any air Grigor that that a coven is trying to bring about in the world, you know, the idea of a magical being or entity that can serve a purpose that is created by a hive mind or a large group mind. And no, no real difference there. We are putting this energy into the world, and we are reaping it at the same time. Yeah. It's, we've gotten to an interesting state in that way. What can we do to, I guess, start softening our own hearts? What can we do to begin understanding, because I really think that there, there comes a point, even when you're dealing with somebody that might be obsessed, that you don't know, as obsessed, that it might just be enough. And that, you know, maybe you lose that sense of humanity or compassion with the situation and wash your hands of it, what can we do to start, I guess, turning ourselves around to start turning around how we view people who are in this state? And what can we do for them?

2:25:29

2:27:57

Well, I think that's the first and foremost thing is to think, think to oneself, is except for the grace of God, there go I so being able to understand that everyone comes from, has had their own unique experiences in life, many had come from trauma, many come from broken homes, or abusive situations, or other things that have helped to shape their current belief systems, their moral systems, etc. That's the first thing because if a person can understand, and it doesn't mean you have to agree with that other person, you can wholeheartedly disagree with the person and still have empathy and compassion for that person. You know, but that piece has been lost, like you said, you know, with the hard left hard, right, et cetera. That piece, you know, hard left hard right would like to put daggers to each other's throat and slit it and walk off. Which is the total antithesis as to what God has commanded us, you know, to love to love doesn't necessarily mean you give them license to do anything. They want. Sure, but you love them enough sometimes to correct them. But you also love them enough that you back off, in if necessary, give them enough rope to hang themselves. Sure, because, you know, we all are walking this journey. I I seriously doubt anyone has the sum total of all knowledge regarding spiritual matters except Christ Himself and the Holy Trinity. Beyond that, I'm not even sure the angels have the full story. Even though sure they could. I'm just using it as an example closer to no one worse, but they're separated by job. They're separated by job and rank two. So sure, they're sure. So we need to have them know. Exactly, exactly. Each one has their own department of knows, right? You know, and, but we need to give the same compassion, just as Christ said, you know, do unto others as you would have them do unto you, you know, the golden rule, you know, give each other grace to not only have a different opinion, but also to be able to grow beyond that opinion. Because if either side, you know, hard left hard ride, or whatever you want to call it if either side is doing nothing, but browbeating the other. Yeah, verbally or whatnot, they only harden that person's position.

2:30:09

2:30:16

2:31:07

Oh, yeah. Yeah, precisely a prime example the other day on social media. I had two responses to drag queen storytime. Yeah. And, and what was going on, I saw one person that I knew that was very right sided and very, very religious and, and saw quite a few people going very religiously on about drag queen storytime. And the thing is that these people reading stories to children will suffer. Because because of their choice as to what to wear. And my only response on their timeline, which stopped all comments thereafter. was hot take Jesus loves drag queens.

2:32:06

Yes. He may now expand that in that he may say, Hey, y'all need to get your life right. But I love you. But

2:32:20

I still love you. And I don't enjoy the choice. You're making what have you. But I love you. And let's start there. Absolutely. My second response was, I wonder how many of those protesters showed up with a book to read. Because I don't care who is reading stories to children or what they're wearing? We need to be reading stories to children. So unless you brought a book with your protest sign I think you might be the one traumatizing the children in this case. Yeah, show up with your anger in the middle of storytime at a public library. For Well, being thing.

2:33:08

Those things need to be discussed outside of the the proximity of children, because children aren't aren't going to understand for one, they'll just see a bunch of adults arguing they'll get anxious, precise. I mean, the example that set there is well the aggressor is the person with the signs who's coming in angry, not the person who's calmly reading the story.

2:33:20

2:33:32

Yeah, and that may harden. You know, that may harm children, that hurts.

2:33:36

2:33:40

You know, sure. And they're like, I don't want to be with those angry, nasty people. Yeah, precisely. You know, if you have a problem with it, you know, you need to discuss that with the organization that's sponsoring it. You need to, you know, talk, yes, you have the right to protest, that's part of the Constitution. But you just because you have a right to do something at a particular time. Is that actually expedient to and this can be applied to the left as well. Is that actually expedient to the thing you're trying to accomplish? Yes. You know, or should you not doing in front of the impressionable kids and kiddos that are are doing you're having a story, right?

2:34:24

Yeah, yeah, that was, that was my whatever is someone who used to be the person who read stories to kids was, Hey, man, kids are just they're reading like having a story read. They literally have zero judgment about what that person's wearing or why. Yeah, until they might look sideways. Funny and go like that means wearing a dress. That's funny. Weird. But they'll rarely judge it unless that's been put in there.

2:34:56

I'm sure well, not.

2:34:58

Well, well. And that falls once again on the concept of judgment to begin with, and, and not see things starting with that best four letter word of all love. Yeah. And and that concept of understanding to begin with yeah and not. And folks need to to also understand when, like, like for myself when I say you know, we love everyone even if we strongly disagree with them, it doesn't mean that we love them, quote unquote, to let them do whatever they want without warning them. Yeah, because then that's licensed. Yeah, the licensed to, you know, like the old Beastie Boys, you know, licensed to ill. Yeah, you know you give them that license, do whatever they want. But that's not true love, if you don't warn them, as well, but you do it in a spirit of humility in a spirit of humbleness when you warn others. Yes. The other thing, which is totally lost. I mean, I don't see that happening often at all. On left or right. Yeah. These grades. Yeah, no, humility is like, a foreign concept. To most folks. Yeah.

 2:35:17

 2:36:16

Yeah. The idea of being able to step back. Yeah. And and not be involved in that way. Yeah, exactly. And we, we really do have to be willing to approach more situations like this, we really do have to be willing to approach every human being that we meet, like this father, it's it's hard to get to a point of, I guess, being almost a social blank slate to get to and I remember many, many years ago, a kid that I sponsored for confirmation. It was, and we were talking about what what we were sacrificing. And I had, he was talking about how we how we given up like, Coke and pizza or something like that. And I was like, Oh, that's great. You know, I know how much you love your you love your sodas. That's great. He's like, Well, what are you giving up? And I was like, I'm giving up being judgmental. I'm not gonna judge people via preconceived notions anymore. Yeah. Many of us like, that's easy. And I was like, tell you what it was, it was Wednesday night, it was youth night, I was like, let's see if you can go through the night. Without being judgmental. Without without causing judgment upon somebody, or, or having a preconceived notion about what they think or why they're doing what they're doing. And after about an hour, he came back, I was like, Yeah, okay, that's a really, really hard

 2:38:06

 2:38:09

I mean, I'm not gonna say that I don't jump to judgment, but I am pretty ration with how I approach people and with with how I take what people do and why they do it. Yeah, and since that point, I have I have definitely changed in in the way that I look at things and view things and have definitely come to a much more compassionate view than the hard nosed views I used to have.

 2:38:43

Sure, well, you know, I have an example like, for So, if I was say, I was in India, you know, as a as a bishop. And the Hindus are telling me well, you know, Krishna, and all these others are telling, telling you, you know, if you don't not eat a steak, you're going to, if you eat a steak, you're going to you know, burn in the fires a hell, whatever. You know, because cows are sacred over there. I would be like, I'm gonna have a ribeye, dude. I like revise. Yeah, why? I don't I don't grasp the concept of not eating a cow. It did totally to you, but I don't give a rat's butt. And it's the same concept. When a Christian tries to tell non Christians are those of different faiths. Well, the Bible says blah, blah, blah. Well, yes, it's true. I'm not gonna say it's not true, but If you're just saying it like that they're going to have the same reaction. But I would have to a Hindu priest telling me you eat that cow you're gonna burn I'd be like, where's my fork and knife? I'm gonna eat the steak. Yeah. And so people have to have compassion on you have to show them the why, you know? Why would this be bad? Why would this be bad? If you said the cow you know, has Mad Cow Disease don't eat the cow you'll go nuts okay, I probably will avoid eating the countenance Sure. Or there's going to be some consequence because I'm following a certain action or behavior okay, I can understand that. But if you just come shoot out right off the hip out of the gate with foreign concept to an individual and are judging their behaviors from a foreign concept they're not going to get into it doesn't mean the hill of beans don't go there's no change going to occur go go explain the concept of two consuming the body and blood of Christ on a Sunday without explaining Transubstantiation. Exactly. Get the same reaction. You're cannibals and you eat your god yeah, that would be the same reaction Christ himself got what you want to eat your flesh and drink your blood Are you insane? Wait a minute. This escalated quickly.

 2:41:07

 2:41:29

 2:41:41

We were putting biting Jews here hold on what does this all mean? I'm not even not you know and you have to look at things in context you have to look at things in the the idea of once again walking a mile in somebody's shoes and what brought them to that point and seeing the love or compassionate point of even even with somebody who is obsessed, or D maniacally obsessed by a note I used obsessed first because you could you could be obsessed about a lot of things once again you could be obsessed about what those people are doing over there politically. And that is not that is not psychologically a healthy thing. Not to like say much like saying you hate somebody, like oh, wait a minute, you hate the president. Here's a quick psychological leveling question. Have you ever actually met the man? Yeah.

 2:41:48

 2:41:51

2:42:50

No, I just call up what people tell me because I cannot that's that's that's a little bit out there to say that like you hate somebody that you have never shook hands or shared the same space with you may hate to say the green you may you may hate what they stand against but you hate the person with that actively like that psychologically? Something wrong there. Yeah, there's a big difference. You can strongly disagree with what they stand for. But them as a human being. You gotta love them.

2:42:53

2:43:18

2:43:26

Yeah, yeah, so and we've lost a lot of that we've lost a lot of that as a society we've lost a lot of live and let live but at the same time we have lost a lot of that caring for our fellow man and looking out for our fellow man and I that's what I wanted to bring about in this conversation was the idea of keeping an eye out for your family members this holiday season for your friends who may not realize that they have surrendered will Yeah, to a substance or to a lifestyle even once again going back to Step four, a lead let's accept step two to begin with which is a power greater than yourself might restore your life to sanity. Yeah.

2:44:26

Even even if it's a tree Yeah, hey, maybe the tree will be bigger than yourself.

2:44:34

That is literally what I say on the show constant I don't care what you believe in man. I don't you have to accept that there is something greater than you in the universe that you are not yet the end all be all that is where the danger begins. period period. Yeah. And and you you don't care if it's a dog if it's the tree next door doesn't matter. better care about something bigger than yourself? Yeah, you know in connection right there. Yeah. And hey, don't get me wrong my my AAA was court ordered. But I read that but I read that book twice. Oh yeah. And I can't say as there has been a more straight to the point method of getting your life straight and keeping it straight than those steps and being a friend Bill now. I mean you can see decanters behind me over my shoulder I'm far from from a raging alcoholic I maybe have a couple few drinks a week. But yeah, man, the compassion that I have for the people, the people that I've met the people that I know who are friends of Bill, God bless every one of you this holiday season. Everybody who is suffering with that obsessive part inside of them, even if it's obsessive negative self talk that's the worst. Get get past it. Get past it. You are worthy you are worth being loved. Absolutely you are you're worth loving yourself this year. And if the most selfish thing you do is work on yourself go be selfish that that's literally the advice I can give. Go Go be selfish. Selfish to work on yourself other than working on other people all the time go be selfish. Go work on yourself because unless your cup is repaired and filled it's hard to fill anybody else's I want to thank you for true even for the 2:47:04

clergy. Yeah,

 2:47:05
yeah and especially if you know people have the collar pray for them this year. There they are in need of it more than more than any other they are under more spiritual attack on the daily than your average bear. Especially good folks like you father who are out there daily shouting their name at the enemy you're more than flairs up buddy. Well, I'll tell you real quick. I don't mean to interrupt your thought. I'll tell you real quick. I had visitations before I did this radio show. There was a shadow entity that ran through the house. Oh wow. checking me out before I did the show, which is very normal because they don't like to be exposed. And so I ran his little sorry but right on out the door. But it I get the visitors for an exorcism or before these types of shows. So legitimately it's real

 2:47:42

 2:48:21
Yeah, yeah, I my my experiences steeled me with the fact that it was real real beyond anything else and it was it was literally what began my road two. I gotta I gotta get out of this.

 2:48:41
Yeah, my here Yeah.

 2:48:44
I want to thank you as always for coming on talking about these topics. They are not easy to talk about there, especially in today's climate in today's world, a lot of people are uncomfortable with them. But I think that they are period points of spirituality that we need to pay attention to whether whether you're Christian or not. These are these are spiritual pillars that we need to try to edify our our bodies and our minds with. Yeah. thanks always for coming on. I greatly appreciate your time. Let let everybody know where they can go to pick up their copy of walking with ghosts where they can go to contact you. If if they are in need of any any spiritual work such as exorcism of their home or somebody they love.

2:49:51

Sure. My book is on Amazon walking with ghosts and exits this memoir of the paranormal. I That night, I actually think you can get it for free if you do the digital version of of the Amazon reader. Otherwise, if you want the physical, I think it's only like six bucks or something like that they set the price. And as far as contacting me, the the main way to contact me one, you can just find me on Facebook. I don't mind direct messages at all. Just James cloud, my Venmo bridge, South Dakota. So you have reference points. But also, you can contact the team's website paranormal research investigators of St. Michael or prism. That's also on Facebook, you can access my page or the team's page. You know, I'm not one of these folks that you have to go through third party proxies to get a hold of me. So feel free to do so even if I can't get to you at least I can point you in the right direction.

2:51:08

Absolutely. Well, thank you so much for your time. You have a great holiday season with your family and your flock.
